

2021 AC<sup>4</sup> Graduate Fellowship Program Projected Budget Form

Deadline: March, 22, 2020, at 11:59pm (EST)

Please provide a clear projection of the use of requested funds. Note that these funds may not be used to pay for the applicant's time conducting research/practice, but should instead be allotted to potential research/practice expenses including: travel, participant incentives and materials directly required to carry out the project. These monies MUST be spent by December 10, 2021.

| Item/Activity | Note | Projected Cost ($) |
|---------------|------|---------------------|
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |
|               |      |                     |

Projected Total ($):___

(Print Applicant's name)

(Applicant's signature)

The Advanced Consortium on Cooperation, Conflict and Complexity (AC4) is a consortium based at the Earth Institute at Columbia University. Our mission is to communicate, engage with and support indisciplinary theory, research and practice related to violence prevention, conflict resolution and sustainable development and peace, at Columbia University and across the globe.